

Elliot Vernet

Position nominated for:
Regional Group
Representative (RGR)
for Latin America region.

Affiliated Society:
President of CORAL

Primary Job: Director Organisation
310MED

Professional Achievement

- Elliot Vernet obtained a degree in biomedical engineering with a specialty in clinical engineering from the Autonomous Metropolitan University (UAM).
- He is the founder of the company 310MED, dedicated to providing maintenance, repair, verification and training services for medical equipment. His professional experience is in the management of health technologies, hospital standards and regulations, as well as in the quality assurance of medical technology; In addition, he has collaborated in both state and federal public administration.
- He is currently a professor at the State University of Sonora (UES).

Societal Contribution

- Mexican Society President (2014- –2017)
- CORAL President (2020 – 2022)
- IFMBE Membership Chair. (2019-2021)
- IFMBE Constitution and Bylaw Co-Chair. (2017-2019)

Honours and Awards

- "Ambrosio Ulloa" award to the engineer of the year 2021 by the Jalisco Union of Engineering Groups-
- In 2019, ACCE Antonio Hernandez International CE Award
- In 2018 received the CED-IFMBE Teamwork Award.