

Keiko FUKUTA

Nominated for:
CED Board Member

Affiliated society:
International Exchange
Committee, Japan
Association for Clinical
Engineers

Primary job:
Specially Appointed
Associate Professor,
Medical Centre for
Translational and Clinical Research, Department of Medical Innovation,
Osaka University Hospital

Professional Achievement

- Working widely and internationally from Japan to Uganda as a clinical engineer for more than 25 years
- Participating in the ICEHTMC since China, 2015 as a representative of Japan Association for Clinical Engineers
- The first Japanese intimate collaboration with Adriana at WHO
- The first person to be employed in the Ministry of Health, Labor and Welfare as a technical officer (clinical engineer) in Japan
- Deep knowledge of infectious diseases, especially COVID-19 countermeasure as a technical officer in MHLW
- Professional experience with Universal Health Coverage related to medical devices in Japan
- A Mentor and tutor, Innovative Medical Device Entrepreneurship Program, Spark in Japan

Societal Contribution

- International Exchange Committee, Japan Association for Clinical Engineers (2015-Current)
- Funder Member, Global Clinical Engineering Alliance (2020-Current)

Honours and Awards