Brief Biography of Nominee (not to exceed 200 words)

She earned her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Biomedical Engineering from UAM-Iztapalapa and is currently a PhD candidate in Administrative Sciences, specializing in Public Policies and Evaluation of Medical Technologies. As a professor at UAM, she served as the Coordinator of the Bachelor's Degree in Biomedical Engineering and has taught over 250 courses in undergraduate and graduate programs within the Department of Electrical Engineering. Her expertise includes directing projects in Medical Technology Management, Clinical Engineering, Pattern Recognition, Signal Processing, and Machine Learning, with a particular emphasis on Technological Management, Quality Management in Biomedical Engineering, and the application of Artificial Intelligence techniques and methodologies. She is an active member of the National Laboratory for Research in Medical Instrumentation and Imaging, contributing to the Optimization and Artificial Intelligence area as the head of the Pattern Recognition project. She leads the academic body Public Policies and Technological Management in Health with Equity, with the Department of Economy. Her contributions have been published in both national and international forums, particularly in areas such as Biomedical Engineering, Signal Processing, and Artificial Intelligence. She currently serves as the President of the Clinical Engineering Division of the IFMBE, while also collaborating with the Mexican Society of Biomedical Engineering.

Nominee's Position Statement (not to exceed 200 words) (do not include CV)

I am genuinely grateful for the opportunity to be considered for the Ordinary Administrative Council Member role. With a deep commitment to advancing our organization's mission, I can offer experience, dedication, and a collaborative mindset to contribute meaningfully to the council's work.

As a professional with over 30 years of experience in academia, I have developed strong skills in strategic planning, governance, and decision-making, which align well with the responsibilities of this role. My background includes coordination of academic programs, direction of students and group projects in biomedical engineering topics, and the direction of the Clinical Engineering division, equipping me with the ability to address challenges thoughtfully and implement effective solutions. If elected, I will prioritize fostering transparent communication within the council and with our stakeholders, ensuring that our policies and initiatives reflect our community's diverse needs and aspirations. I am particularly passionate about integrating the different working groups with the divisions and incorporating the current and future trends in engineering in medicine and biology. I am eager to collaborate with fellow council members to strengthen our organization's foundation and advance its goals. Thank you for considering my application.

I look forward to the opportunity to contribute.
